

San Francisco's Musical Lunch Break

Mission

Noontime Concerts is a 501(C)3 nonprofit education and arts organization dedicated to the presentation of free, high-quality, classical music performances to the public each week, performed by world-class musicians and talented emerging artists.

Noontime Concerts sustains the future of live classical music by providing performance opportunities for talented musical artists and exceptional programs, offered at no cost, to thousands of audience members each year. In 2019 we presented 58 concerts to approximately 8,000 live audience members. Recorded performances are viewed by a world-wide online audience.
